

"TWA HOURS AT HAME"

The Scottish Entertainers who are to appear at the Opera House on March 21, under the auspices of the Honolulu Scottish Thistle Club, have met with great favor throughout the United States and Canada with their unique entertainment "Twa hours at hame" in which the audience is transplanted for a couple of hours to the land of Burns. The vocal selections are precluded and interspersed with brief, well told anecdotes or description of the songs which make a pleasing variation in the program.

Gavin Spence is a justly celebrated Scottish tenor and Miss Flora Donaldson is a Scottish soprano with a remarkably clear and sweet voice. Besides his delightful rendering of Scottish songs, Mr. Spence is a born elocutionist and his humorous anecdotes convulse his hearers while his pathetic word pictures of such scenes as Ian MacLaren's "Death of Dr. McClellan" have more than once touched his audiences to tears.

No admirer of Scottish song and story and no lover of good music should miss this opportunity of hearing the songs of Scotland sung by a bonnie Scotch lassie and a burly chieftain from Edinburgh town. This entertainment while appealing specially to people of Scottish descent has never failed to please an intelligent American audience.

"Hinnissey," replied Dooley, "ye make me more ashamed of ye than I raily am. Phwat is Skeet-Go? Yer ignorance is appallin."

"Well, phwat is it?"

"I'll enlighten ye, but 'tis pitiful to see a man so dimse. Skeet-Go and the relic of Roosevelt are the two greatest things of the pristin century. 'Tis a devise to git rid of muskeeters. 'Tis a piece of gauze ye place over th' top of a small la-amp wid some buhack powder on it; ye light the la-amp, turn down the wick a thrifle, an' there ye are an' there the skeeters aint, fur they jist naturally lie down an' quit."

"Does it shnell?" asked Hennessey.

"It does not," replied Dooley.

"'Tis a mirruk," said Hennessey.

"'Tis a God-send," concluded the philosopher. For the thrifin' sum of wan dollar ye can purchase peace an' comfort in the home, reading the latest war ravins of the tilligraf editors wid the pa-aper in wan hand and strokin' the ca-at wid the other."

"An' where do ye git it?" asked the interested Hennessey.

"At the Hobrey Drug Co., an' yure dollar back if ut dont suit."

WHY THE U. S. WASHING MACHINE IS THE BEST BECAUSE

It is the only Rotary washer that has revolving steel ball gearing reducing the friction and thus making machine so light running and almost noiseless.

The gear wheel turns right or left, the pin wheel or dasher reverses automatically, turning the clothes back and forth through the hot soap suds and cleaning them without rubbing them to pieces.

Over one hundred thousand in use. The U. S. Machines have no equal because they wash clean.
